

SCHOLARSHIPS IN MEMORY OF VIVIAN

Each and every person who encountered Paraskevi (Vivian) Demoleas was truly blessed with her selfless acts of kindness. Vivian loved all, found the good in everyone, and had continuous patience for the students and staff at the High School of Telecommunications. She was a true educator at heart and with every decision she made, she kept students and teachers in mind. Her dedication and impact for the students with special needs was of no limit. She made very effort to support, guide, and find resources needed to accommodate their needs. She taught everyone how to laugh often, be kind, and love those who struggled. As a reciprocal effort, we would love to create scholarships for the Telecommunication seniors of special needs going to college/universities or vocational schools who possess the mission and qualities Vivian exhibited throughout her career. Please open your hearts and support such a great cause.
